

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

ACADÉMIE DE COMPOSITION

February 20 to March 1, 2025

Le Pavillon de La Sirène / Paris

ORCHESTRE NATIONAL DE JAZZ / REAL TIME MUSIC

The Orchestre National de Jazz (ONJ) and the Real Time Music association are organizing the fourth edition of the Académie de Composition in February 2025.

This academy takes the form of an intensive 8-day course to guide 8 composers write an original piece. The course is structured around masterclasses, group discussions and individual lessons.

At the end of the course, each of the pieces composed will be performed by the musicians of the Orchestre des Jeunes de l'ONJ in a public performance.

For this fourth edition, the trainees are supervised by Frédéric Maurin (ONJ Artistic Director from 2019 to 2024) and Sylvaine Héлары (Association Sybille, ONJ Artistic Director starting on 2025).

Masterclasses are given by Sigrid Aftret, Ralph Alessi, Pascale Criton and Didier Levallet.

The Académie is also holding an open day for the public on Saturday February 22, inviting them to take part in a series of conferences and workshops, as well as an introductory conducting module led by Léo Margue (conductor and artistic director of ensemble 2e2m).

> Targeted audience

Professional musicians of all ages who already have experience as composers (whatever the type of ensemble) and wish to perfect their skills in this field.

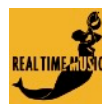

> Group headcount

The course is open to 8 composers, who must attend the entire event (including the preparatory meeting scheduled by videoconference).

Masterclasses are also open to free auditors.
